TRUTH

Master

For those who do not already deeply understand that the current human condition is SLAVERY, I fully recognize that, at this point in time, you may not even be able to consider with an open mind much of the information in this presentation, due to a lack of prerequisite knowledge.

Got Natural Law?

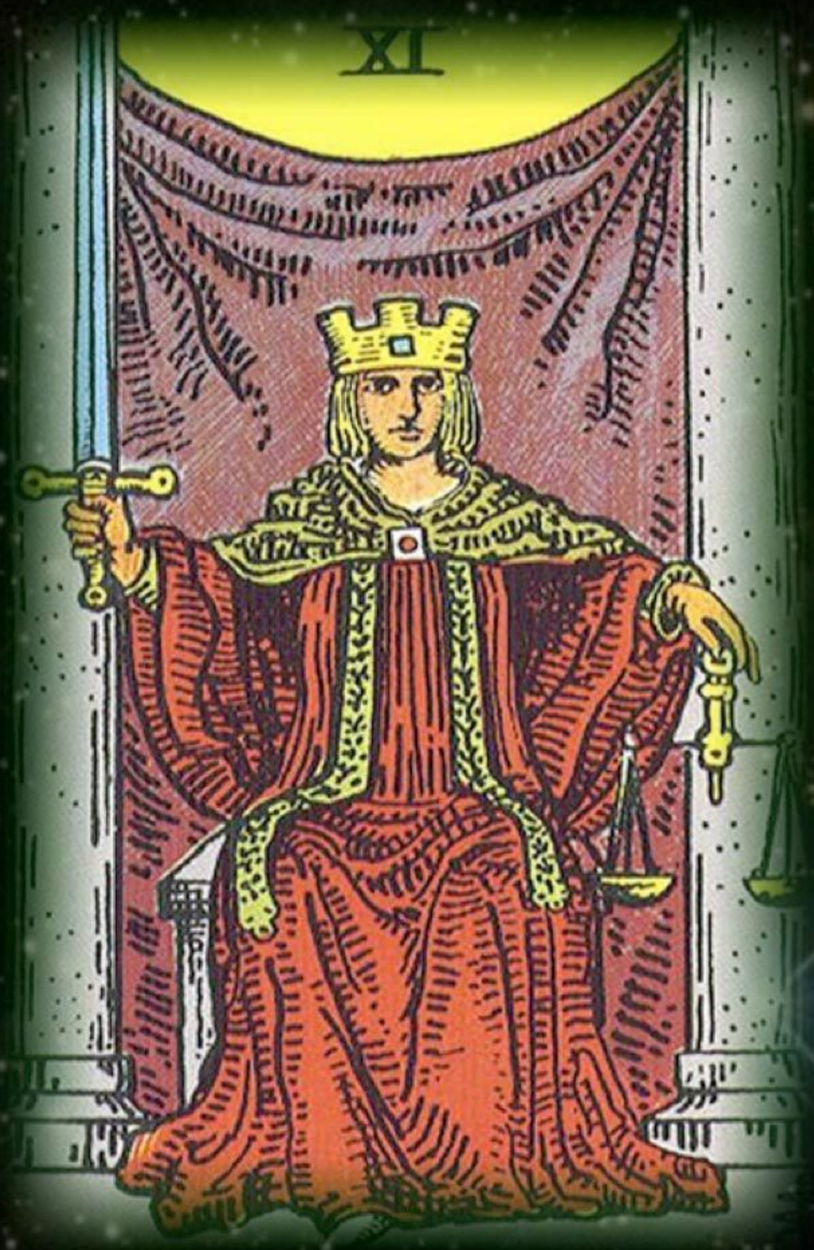
Natural Law is the body of universal, non-man-made, binding and immutable Laws which act as the governing dynamics for the consequences of human behavior.

Why Not?

Got Natural Law?

Understanding Natural Law means truly having Conscience, which is the definitive knowledge of the objective difference between morally right behavior and morally wrong behavior.

Why Not?



Got Natural Law?

Living in harmony with Natural Law means exercising Conscience, or willfully choosing morally right behavior over morally wrong behavior, once the difference is clearly understood.

Why Not?

Got Natural Law?

When human beings live in harmony with natural law, and are therefore moral, they become and remain free. When human beings live in opposition to Natural Law, and are therefore immoral, they become and remain enslaved.

Why Not?

ONE TRUE DIVIDE

There is only One True Divide that separates humanity into two distinct types of individuals. The criterion for this divide is whether or not an individual believes in "Authority," and therefore believes that there is legitimacy to Slavery.

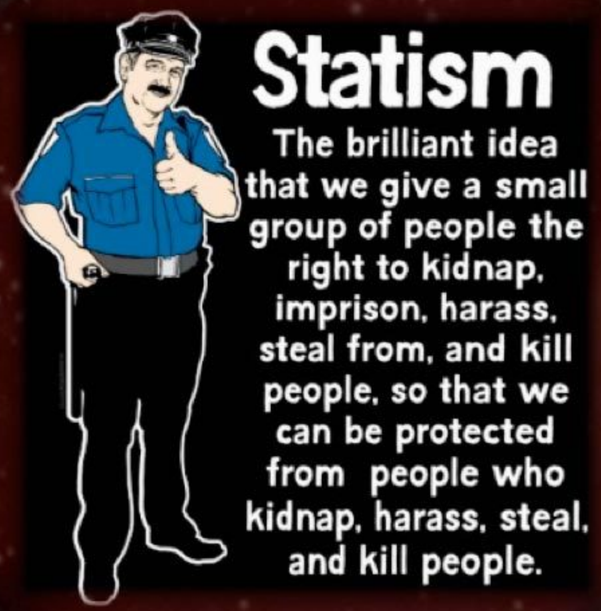
SUPPORTS SLAVERY



Statism
The brilliant idea that we give a small group of people the right to kidnap, imprison, harass, steal from, and kill people, so that we can be protected from people who kidnap, harass, steal, and kill people.

STATIST

ANARCHIST

OPPOSES SLAVERY

THERE IS ONLY ONE TRUE DIVIDE THAT SEPARATES HUMANITY INTO TWO DISTINCT TYPES OF INDIVIDUALS. THE CRITERION FOR THIS DIVIDE IS WHETHER OR NOT AN INDIVIDUAL BELIEVES IN "AUTHORITY," AND THEREFORE BELIEVES THAT THERE IS LEGITIMACY TO SLAVERY.

Why are most people so unconscious that they continue to:

- refuse to live in harmony with Natural Law?
- fail to recognize the rampant presence of evil in their midst?
- willfully participate in such evil, either directly or indirectly?

Willful Ignorance

Fear Of Owning Personal Responsibility

Self-Loathing Due To Lack Of Self-Respect

Questions:

- Why are there so many ancient accounts of extraterrestrial visitation to our planet, all so similar in the events they describe, yet all are readily dismissed by modern academia as merely fantasy and myth?
- Are human beings actually the progeny of an extraterrestrial species that came to earth millennia ago, as some ancient historical accounts suggest?
- Were human beings created by extraterrestrial entities as a hybrid slave species, for unknown purposes related to an alien agenda?

Questions:

- Did our extraterrestrial "parents" inadvertently create a host of genetic defects in the human genome, including primary psychopathy, as a result of the imprecise genetic modification techniques they employed?
- Did our extraterrestrial forbearers provide to us our systems of government, money, and religion; and to what ends did they do so?

Questions:

- What effect did our "cosmic parents" disappearance have upon the collective human psyche, and how significant are these events to understanding the current psychological conditions in which humanity exists?
- What does humanity need to understand to rectify the deeply-seated psychological trauma that it has accumulated over millennia, as a direct result of its "troubled childhood"?

PART I

THE STORY OF OUR PAST

"I've come to realize that the biggest problem anywhere in the world is that people's perceptions of reality are compulsively filtered through the screening mesh of what they want, and do not want, to be true."

– Travis Walton

"It is a great mystery that, though the human heart longs for Truth, in which it alone finds liberation and delight, the first reaction of human beings to Truth is one of hostility and fear."

– Anthony de Mello

OCCULT

The word occult is derived from the Latin adjective occultus: "hidden," which comes from the Latin verb occultare: "to hide; to conceal; to keep secret."

HIDDEN KNOWLEDGE

OCCULT

Such Knowledge has been deliberately hidden in order to create and maintain a power differential between those who hold it and those who are ignorant of it.

Extraterrestrial beings, often described as "gods," supernatural entities, giants, or "Watchers," who the ancient Sumerians called Anunnaki, meaning "those who came to Earth from the heavens," arrived on Earth in the distant past.

Their primary mission was to obtain gold for purposes which are not fully understood. The mission was led by two brothers, Enki and Enlil, who were sons of Anu, king of the Anunnaki home world.

After their arrival, the Anunnaki put many of their own people to work in mining excavations in southern Africa, a region which they called the Abzu, meaning "the deep."

After realizing that they did not have enough manual laborers to obtain the quantities of gold they required, Enki devised a plan to create a slave species by genetically modifying an existing hominid species indigenous to Earth. The Anununnaki would use this new slave species to do their gold mining work for them.

This plan is summarized in the following exchange between the brothers:

Enki: "The beings we need already exist. They live in the Abzu and walk erect on two legs. My son, Ningishzidda, has tested their DNA and it is similar to ours. We can combine our DNA with theirs to create primitive workers who are intelligent enough to understand our commands and handle our tools. They will do the mining for us, and relief will come to our people."

Enlil: "Slavery was abolished long ago on our planet. Tools are our slaves, not other beings. You are suggesting creating a new species which did not exist previously. Such creative power belongs to God alone."

This plan is summarized in the following exchange between the brothers (continued):

Enki: "They will not be slaves, but helpers. We will not be creating a new species, but taking one that already exists and giving them more ability by making them more in our image. This can be achieved with only slight changes to their DNA."

Enlil: "This is not to my liking, and it is forbidden by our mission plan. Our purpose was to obtain gold, not to play God."

The Anunnaki decided to put the matter before Anu, their king. On their planet, Anu convened the Council of Elders, who ultimately decided to go ahead with Enki's plan.

After many failed attempts, the Anunnaki successfully created a hybrid by fertilizing the ovum of an Earth female with sperm from an Anunnaki male and inserting the fertilized egg into the womb of an Anunnaki female. A male hybrid was born and was named Adamu, meaning "one who is like Earth's clay."

They then created a female hybrid so that the new worker species could procreate on their own. They called the female hybrid Tiamat, after the ancient planet from our solar system which was partially destroyed in a celestial collision.

They took the new prototype workers to a place called Edin, where they were to be bred in mass numbers. But the Anunnaki's breeding program did not work as expected, because the female workers turned out to be incapable of bearing children.

Meanwhile, the Anunnaki workers in the mines of the Abzu were running out of patience and were on the brink of mutiny. Enki decided to have his son, Ningishzidda, sequence the genome of Adamu and Tiamat to determine why they were not procreating.

The DNA of the hybrids was sequenced and compared with the DNA of the Anunnaki. It was discovered that the hybrids had a total of 22 pairs of chromosomes but lacked two chromosomes necessary for procreation. A pair of chromosomes were taken from the Anunnaki and spliced into Adamu's and Tiamat's DNA.

This genetic manipulation is described in the following account:

> Ningishzidda caused a deep sleep to descend upon Enki, Nimah, Adamu and Tiamat. He extracted DNA from the rib of Enki and inserted it into the rib of Adamu. He then extracted DNA from the rib of Ninmah and inserted it into the rib of Tiamat. He then awakened the four of them and said to Enki: "Two chromosomes have been added to their DNA. They are now capable of procreating on their own."

The new hybrids were returned to the orchards of Edin, where they became aware of their nakedness and their ability to procreate. Tiamat made aprons of leaves for them to wear so they could be distinguished from the other animals.

Enlil was still furious with his brother, and with the entire plan to create a slave species, as shown in the following exchange:

Enlil: "The whole plan was not to my liking. I was against the idea of playing God. You told me that all we needed to do was to modify these beings slightly in order to create the workers we needed. But now they have been given our genetics, so that they will be able to procreate on their own and have our long lifespan."

Ningishzidda: "They were given the ability to procreate on their own, but the chromosome that gives us our long lifespan was not added to their genome."

Enki: "What choice did we have? To end our mission in failure, or to do what was necessary, and by giving them the ability to procreate, to let our new workers undertake the labor for us?"

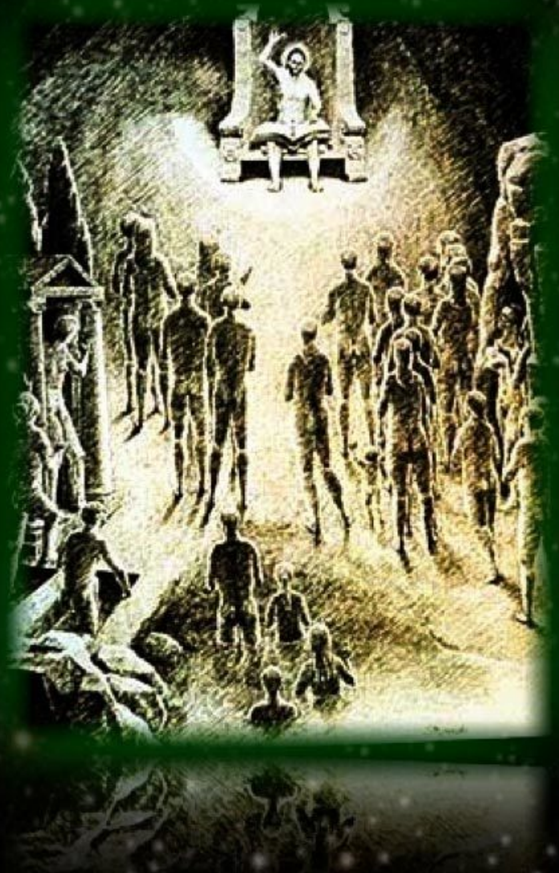
Enlil: "Then let them be expelled from Edin to the Abzu, where they are needed."

The new slave species proved to be too intelligent and therefore too difficult to control (either because of the infusion of Anunnaki DNA, or because too much of the native hominid DNA remained in the hybrids), so other modifications were eventually made to their DNA to make them more easily controllable. This further genetic modification resulted in large portions of disconnected and non-coding DNA in the human genome, which modern scientist have called "Junk" DNA. This process also may have resulted in the 4,000+ genetic defects in the human genome, including primary psychopathy.

Genesis, Chapter 11, describes the further degradation of early humans:

"The whole earth was of one language and one speech. And the children of men said, 'let us build us a city and a tower whose top may reach unto heaven.' And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men had built. And the LORD said, 'Behold, the people are one, and they all have one language, and this is what they begin to do. Nothing which they can imagine will be impossible for them to do soon. So let us go down and confound their language, that they may not understand each other's speech. And from that time forward the Lord scattered them upon the face of the whole earth; and they stopped building the city."

The Annunaki continued their efforts to control the new slave species and to put them to work in the most efficient ways possible. They greatly differed on the best ways to do this, and so a deeper divide formed between the commanding brothers.



Enlil, who hated the plan from its inception, preferred to rule the humans with an iron fist, which he felt would successfully end the mission as soon as possible, allowing him to return to the Anunnaki home world and assume the throne. Enki, on the other hand, looked at the humans as his creation, like a father might look at his children. His method of control was indirect. He gave to the worker species different systems of belief, including religions, governments, and monetary systems, in order to get them to comply willingly by allowing some of the humans to believe the notion that they were in control.

Eventually, Anunnaki males began to take human females as sexual partners, and offspring were born that were another hybrid species with more Anunnaki DNA. They were referred to as "Demi-gods," as they were not full Anunnaki ("gods"), nor were they fully human.

This interbreeding is described in Genesis, Chapter 6:

"And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, that the Sons of God saw the daughters of men were beautiful, and they took wives of any of them which they chose. And the Lord said, 'My spirit shall not always strive with man, for he is also mortal, yet his days shall be no more than one-hundred and twenty years.' There were giants in the earth in those days, and also afterwards, when the Sons of God came unto the daughters of men and bared children with them. The same became mighty men of old, the men of renown."

While interbreeding with the new slave species was also forbidden by the mission plan, the Anunnaki used this to their advantage by placing these "Demi-god" offspring into positions of "royalty" and "authority" on Earth. In this way they interfaced with and controlled the growing human population more easily.

Eventually, in their competition to control the slave population, skirmishes and even all-out wars broke out between different factions of the "gods" and demi-gods.

Some time later, a cataclysmic deluge swept over the Earth, wiping out much of humanity, but leaving small pockets of survivors. Some researchers believe this was a natural event which the Anunnaki knew was imminent but were incapable or unwilling to prevent. Others believe it resulted from a physical pole shift which was deliberately caused by a faction of the Anunnaki led by Enlil using advanced technology in order to eradicate humanity, a species which Enlil saw as an abomination that never should have existed.

The prelude to the Deluge is described in Genesis, Chapter 6:

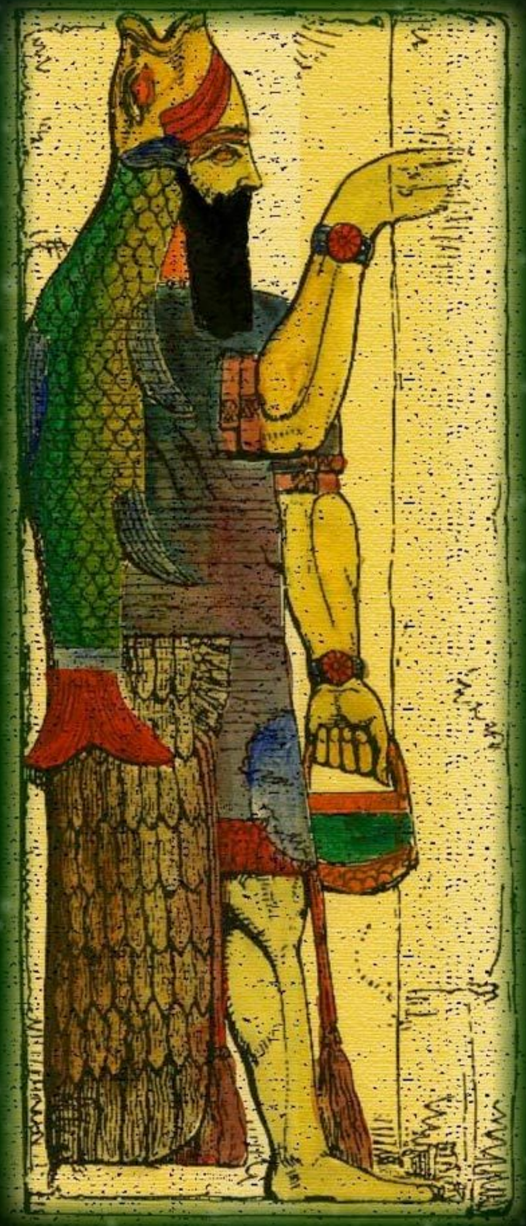
"And God saw that the wickedness of Man was great upon the earth, and that every thought of his heart was evil continually. And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart. And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth … for it repenteth me that I have made them. But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord. Noah was a just man, and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God. And God looked upon the earth, and saw that it was corrupt. And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh has come before me, for the earth is filled with violence; and, behold, I will destroy them."

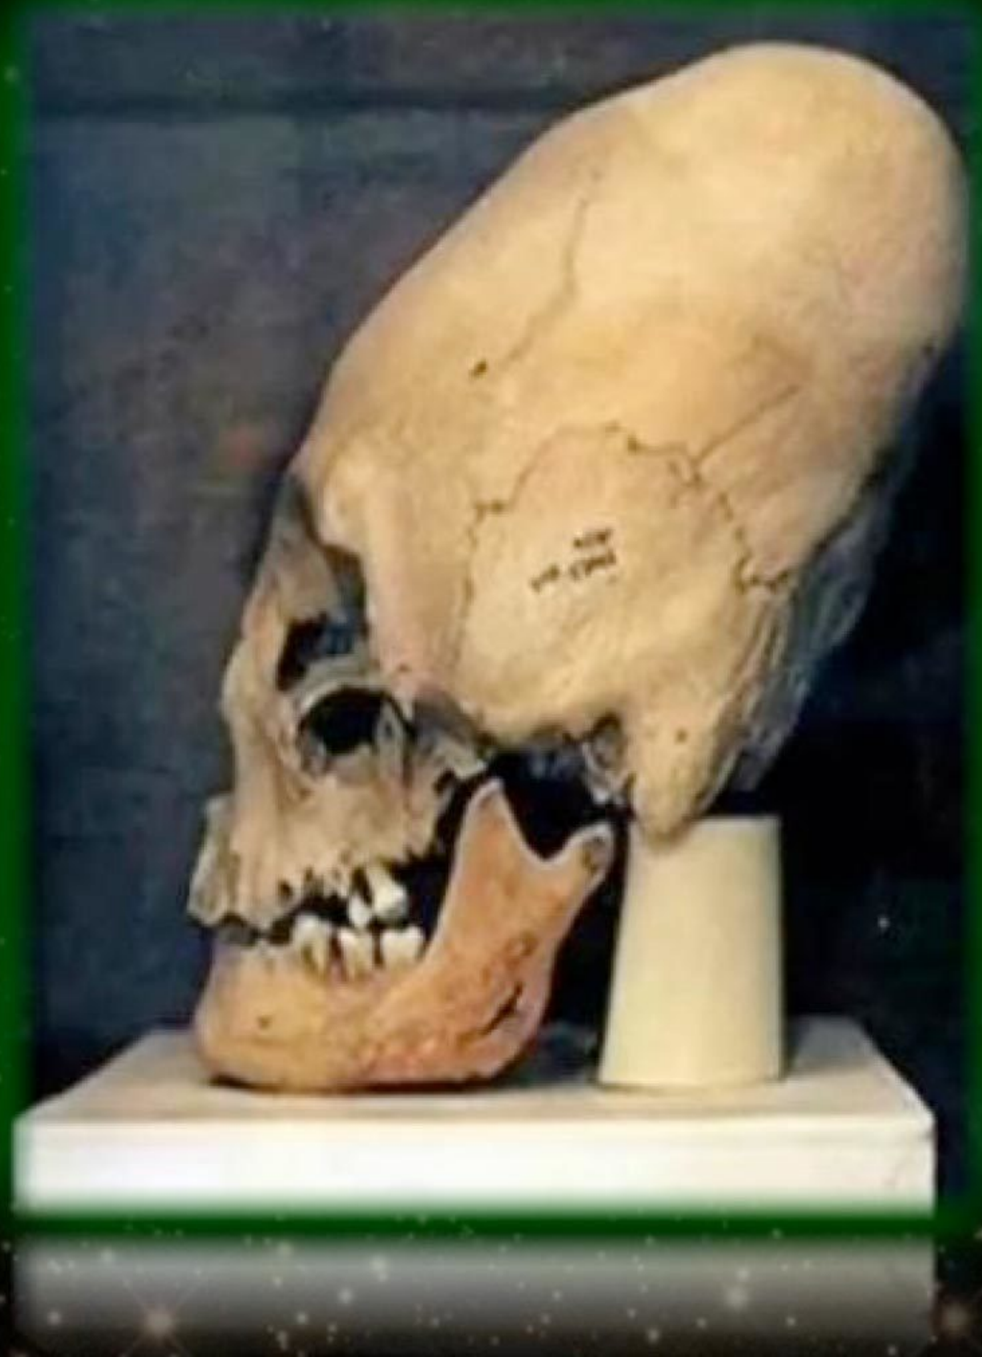
The Anunnaki's mission was eventually completed. They gathered their people and returned to their home planet, leaving the traumatized surviving members of their human slave species to repopulate the Earth with the social systems which had been provided to them.

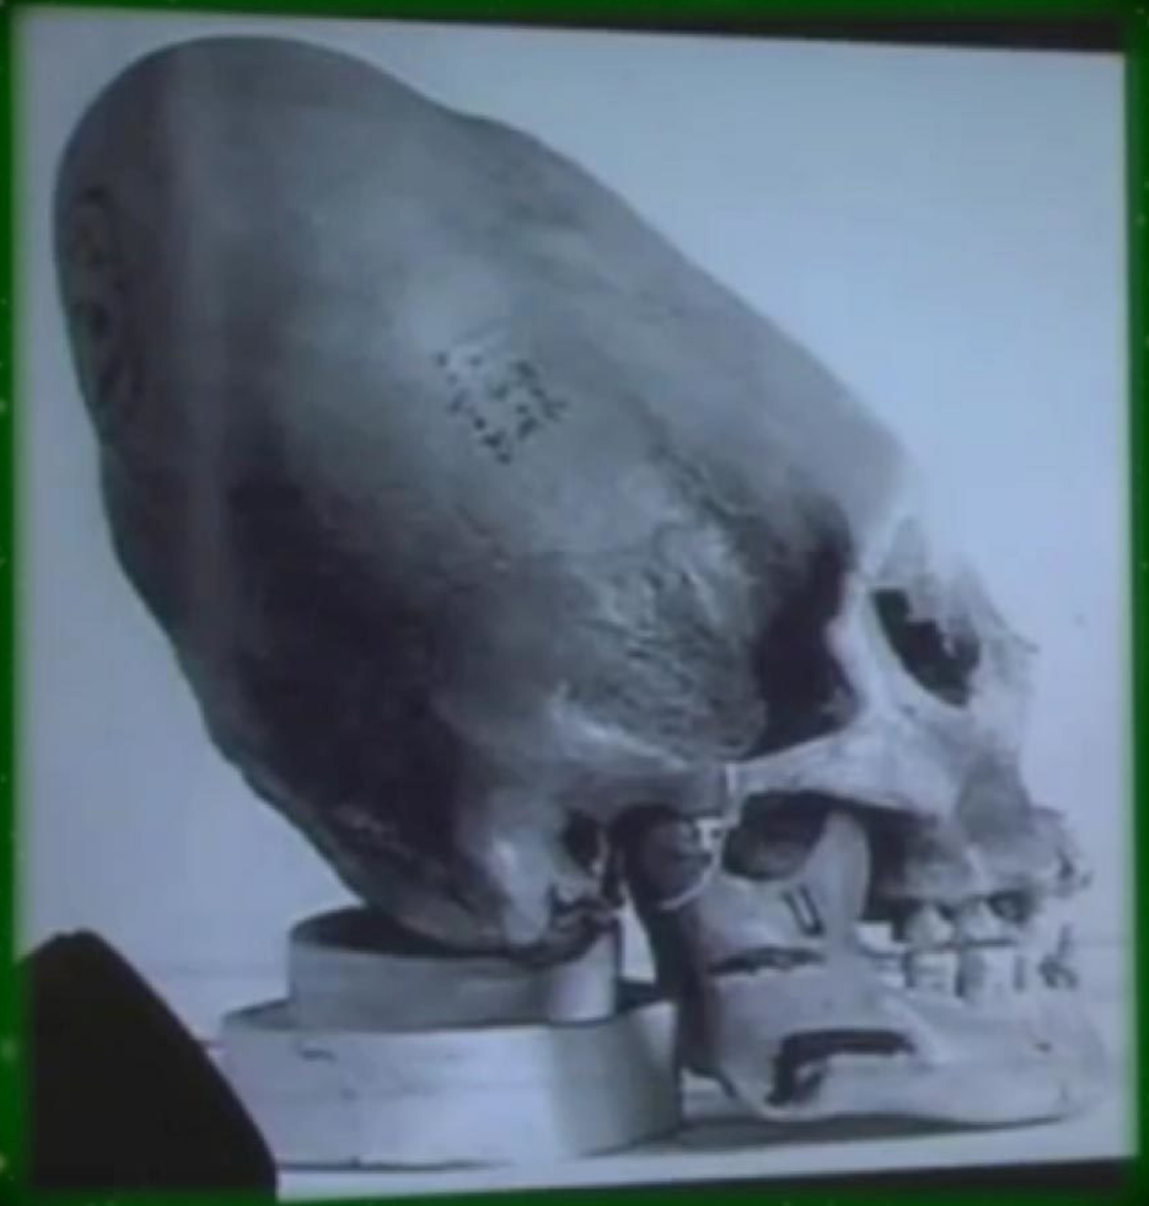
PART II
THE STORY OF OUR PRESENT

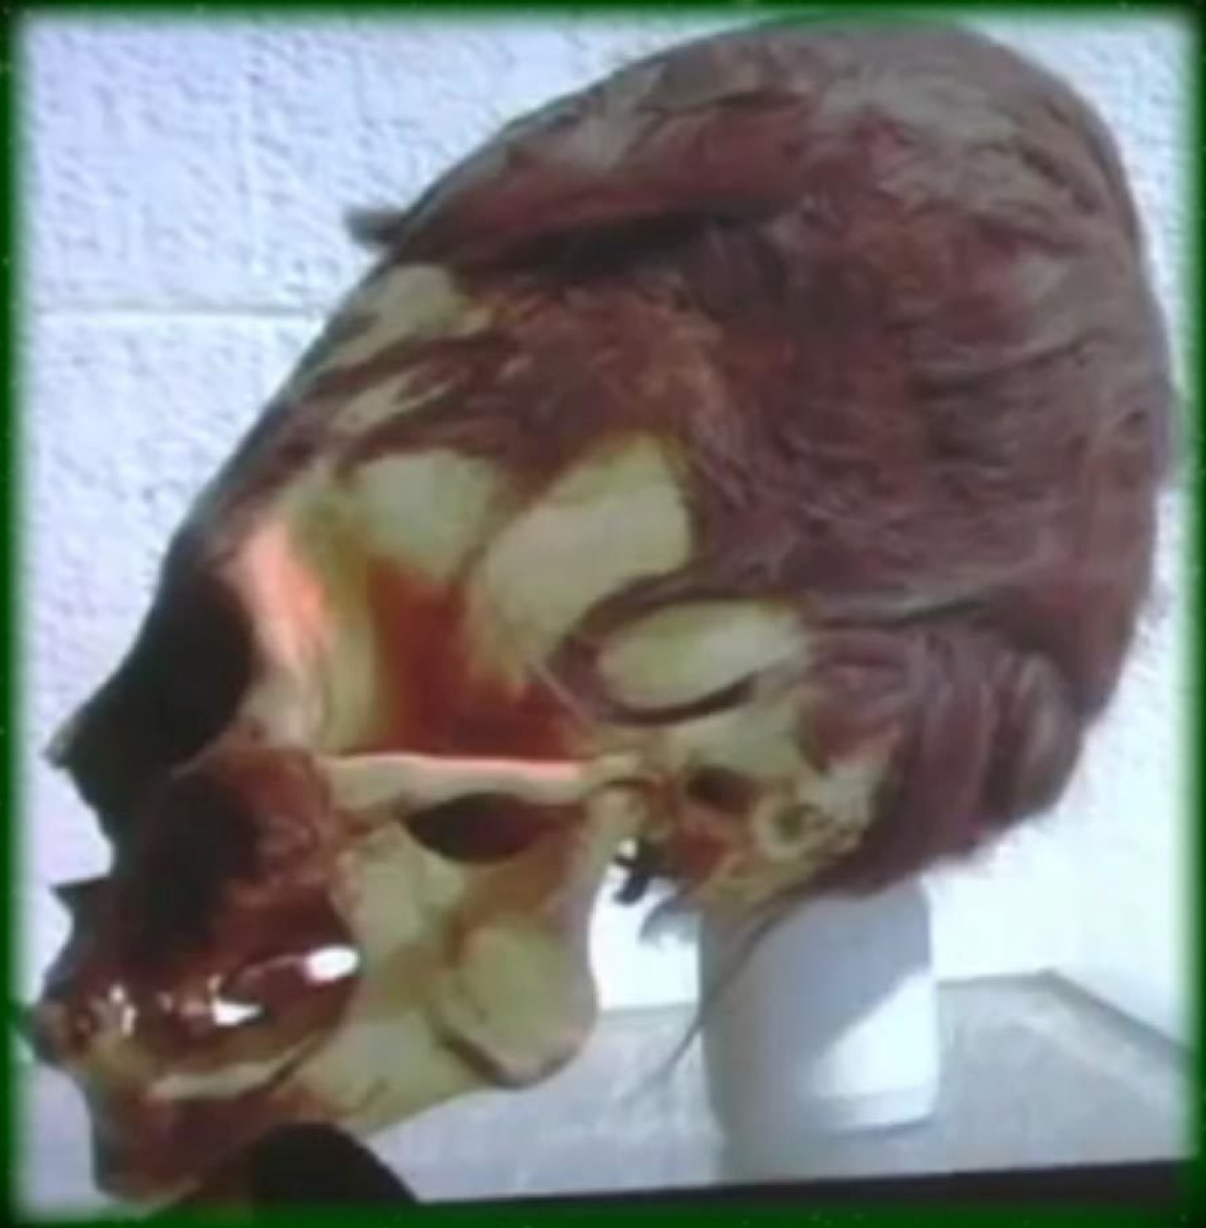
In light of extraterrestrial involvement in human origins, what seemingly inexplicable aspects of our modern world can be explained more readily?

- Ancient structures & artifacts
- Flaws in Darwinian theory
- Human genetic defects
- Origin of Primary Psychopathy
- Religions / Priest-classes
- Secret Societies / Dark Occultism
- Origins of Money
- Human obsession with gold
- Royalty / "Divine right to rule"
- "Authority" / Government

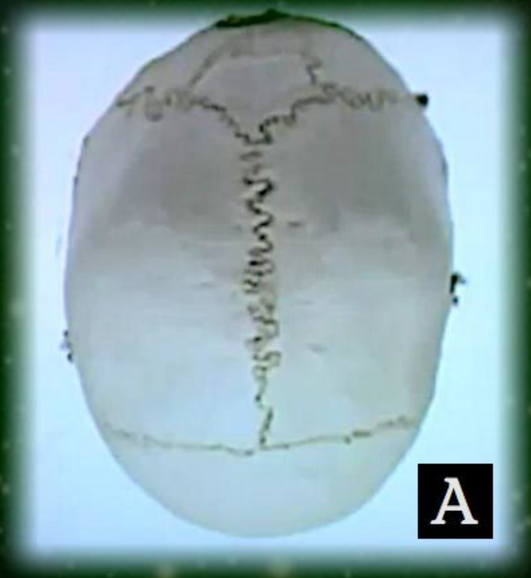


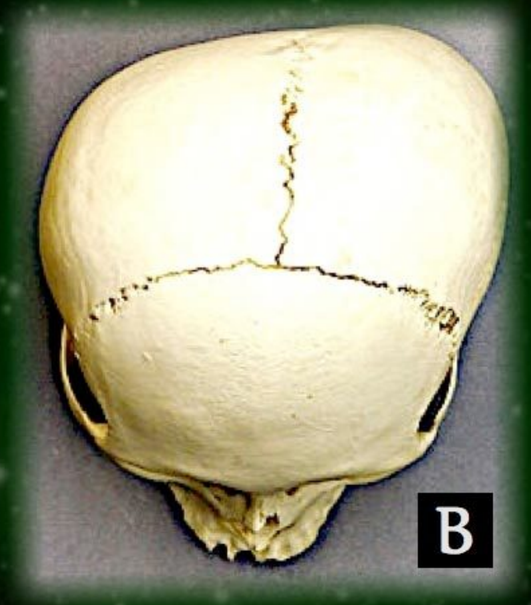






Cradle-boarding, a type of skull binding that leads to cranial deformation, can account for some elongated skull findings. But many others appear to be genuinely anomalous, having just one parietal plate and a heart-shaped dome in the rear of the skulls that can not be achieved through cradle-boarding.





A. Normal human skull
B. Cradle-boarded skull
C. & D. Anomalous skulls

Characteristics Of Psychopaths

- Complete absence of conscience and empathy
- Strongly immoral, aggressive, callous and cunning
- Very adept at manipulating others
- Willing to engage in criminal conduct to get their way
- Deceptive ability to appear benevolent and feign emotion
- Complete absence of guilt or remorse for the harm they cause to others
- Denial / Rationalization / transference of blame
- Contempt toward others' feelings
- Pathological lying
- Refusal to accept responsibility for the consequences of their own actions
- Believe they will never be brought to justice

MASTER-THINK

Chronic Left Brain (masculine) dominance creates suppression of emotion and eventually "roots" us in the Reptile Brain.

SLAVE-THINK

Chronic Right Brain (feminine) dominance creates suppression of survival instinct and eventually "roots" us in the Mammal Brain.

SELF-LOATHING

Self-Loathing is the underlying psychological condition that causes people to attempt to abdicate their own Personal Responsibility to exercise Conscience, and fall into patterns of willful ignorance, order-following and the justification of immoral behavior. Self-Loathing is created when earlier trauma has been suppressed and buried into the Subconscious Mind, instead of being confronted, dealt with, and healed. The effects of such unresolved trauma often take the form of feelings of inadequacy and unworthiness, whether real, suggested, or imagined.

SELF-RESPECT

The word Respect is derived from the Latin prefix re: "again," and the Latin verb spectare: "to look at."

Only Self-Respect can heal self-loathing, and therefore help to put humanity on the path to healing and conscience.

To Take Another Look At Oneself

REMEMBERING
(KNOWLEDGE OF SELF)

Expression	Fulfillment	Failure
Thought	Knowledge, Understanding, Wisdom	Ignorance, Foolishness, Naiveté
Emotion	True Care, Empathy, Compassion	Apathy, Indifference, Callousness
Action	Courage, Will Power, Persistence	Cowardice, Laziness, Submission

SOVEREIGNTY

The word Sovereign is derived from the Latin adverb super: "above" and the Latin noun regnum: "rulership; control." Thus, Sovereign means "one who is above the rulership or control of another," or, in a word: FREE.

NOT A SLAVE

RESPONSIBILITY

An individual's Personal Responsibility to choose Right Action over Wrong Action for themselves is ALWAYS their own. One can only CLAIM that they can "abdicate" personal responsibility for such choice to someone else. This can never actually be done, in Reality. More simply put, AN INDIVIDUAL IS ALWAYS RESPONSIBLE FOR THEIR OWN ACTIONS.

Grow Up. Think For Yourself. Stop Following Orders.

Regardless of how troubled it may have been, Humanity's Childhood Is Over.

Our choice is either to enter

... or perish.
